

Feedback for Christmas for Kids in-person tour, 'Chrimblesense' - 2024

'WOW! The inclusiveness was amazing. Our children have so many needs but they were all so well catered for.' - Teacher, SEND School, Yorkshire

'The children engaged throughout and it was appropriate for all needs, nobody was left out.' - Carer, Children's Hospice, Kent

'Excellent to attend a community event that understands how the child engages with the world around them' - Teacher, SEND School, London

'Even the children who don't normally take notice were mesmerised.' - Teacher, SEND School, South East

'The pupils found the show hilarious and were laughing throughout! Some pupils made comments using language that I have not heard them use before - "fantastic!", "wow, that is so cool!".' - Teacher, SEND School, London

'We were all very happy afterwards when we returned to class' - Teacher, London

'The elements and resources were new, engaging and exciting.' - Teacher, East Midlands

'All the pupils engaged well with the show. Due to the complexities of our pupils' needs it is often challenging to find events that are able to meet this cohort of pupils and this show enabled our most profound and complex pupils to have a valuable and enjoyable experience.' - Assistant SEND School Headteacher, Yorkshire

'Lots of pupils that usually struggle to sustain attention were able to sit and engage throughout' - Teacher, SEND School, South East

'It was tailored to them personally by the actors, so all pupils benefitted' - Assistant SEND School Headteacher, South East

'It met children's needs- even the older ones and brought delight to the children (and adults!) alike' - SENCO, mainstream school with SEND provision, London

'This show brought so much joy and magic into our afternoon! It was heartwarming to see how inclusive and engaging it was, making sure every child felt seen and valued. It gave us such lovely memories to cherish.' - Teacher, London

'It was beautifully and thoughtfully presented. The best show for children with complex needs I have seen in 30 years plus of working in this area.' - Department Head, SEND School, South East

Christmas for Kids 2024 Digital Show 'Phoebe's Festive Favourites' Audience Feedback

"Every year I look forward to sharing your show with my class." – Teacher, SEND School, Scotland

"It was very appropriate for the sensory needs of our children. Suitable for all ages. Loved that the themes could be extended with resource packs, this was great! Made the activity a whole 'session' which was very helpful for planning. The songs were catchy: everyone was singing "In the Snow" all Christmas long :) Repetition great for imbedding learning. The screen prompts were handy, knowing when to pause to insert activity. Amazing it was free. We are a charity so any quality freebies are really appreciated. Thank you!" – Play Team Member, Children's Hospice, South East

"I've worked with children and young people with a big range of needs and I can imagine many of them enjoying and interacting with the show. It is perfectly structured as a sensory story and the ideas provided for adults to make the show sensory are engaging and adaptable for a wide range of needs." – Sensory Resource Provider, UK-wide

"Lovely way to introduce aspects of Christmas, and plan other lessons to support the episode." – Teacher, SEND School, Scotland

"Watching the show brought all of the children together, we had great fun using all of the different resources, we certainly felt excited for Christmas after watching the show." – Children's Hospice Staff Member, South West

"A lovely way to enjoy a film which my students would normally find really difficult. The episodes within the full length version made it predictable which is great. ." – Teacher, SEND School, South West

"It has shown me that the children in my care can and will focus for longer than I expected. Really engaging for my complex learners and I loved the prop prompt ideas. Also, the fact that the sequences were repeated to allow engagement." – Teacher, SEND School, Yorkshire

"A Christmas activity which pupils could actually engage with." – Teacher, SEND School, East Anglia

"Was a lovely activity for my class of PMLD pupils and worked in well with our class programme." – Teacher, SEND School, Northern Ireland

"The children found the puppets and songs engaging... they particularly liked the repeated opening and closing songs. I liked the fact that the resources and sensory experiences could be adapted to what resources you had available and to the children's abilities, likes, dislikes and needs." – Teacher, mainstream school with SEND provision, East Midlands

"Friendly and accessible; (gave a) feeling like they're part of something bigger, a community." – Parent, South East
